parties to maintain status-quo with regard to the suit property till disposal of the revision application. Prayer clause (b) in the revision application was for seeking stay of the operation of the order passed by the learned Principal Judge as well as order passed by the Estate Officer for payment of arrears of rent and damages. On a plain reading of the order dtd. 22.1.2007 it is clear that as of today, there is no interim relief granted by this Court relating to the order for payment of rent and compensation. In view of this position, it is not necessary to entertain this application by directing the revision applicant to deposit the amount. In view of what is stated above, the civil application is disposed of.
